DEPARTMENT OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE
UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT SAN ANTONIO
TENURE-TRACK POSITIONS

The Department of Criminal Justice at the University of Texas at San Antonio seeks to fill two tenure-track positions, one at the Assistant Professor rank focusing on those with research and teaching specializations in policing or courts, and one position at either the tenure-track Assistant Professor rank or tenured Associate Professor rank (tenure contingent upon Board of Regents Approval) with a research focus in cybercrime/digital forensics, beginning Fall 2016. The successful candidate will have a Ph.D. in Criminology, Criminal Justice, or closely related field by the time of appointment, along with demonstrated excellence in scholarly research, grant acquisition, effective teaching, and service. Teaching expectations are commensurate with Research I institutions.

UTSA continues to move toward Research I status and currently enrolls approximately 30,000 students. The Department is housed within the College of Public Policy on UTSA’s Downtown campus, which is situated in the heart of San Antonio. The Department currently offers a B.A. in Criminal Justice and a M.S. in Criminal Justice and Criminology. For further information about the Department, please visit our website: http://cpp.utsa.edu/criminal-justice

Applicants should submit: (1) a cover letter describing research and teaching interests and position applying for, (2) a current curriculum vitae, (3) an example of published scholarly work, and (4) three letters of recommendation.

Send all application materials electronically with UTSA CJ Faculty Search in the subject line to:
