

CCJS E-NEWSLETTER | SPRING 2019

Welcome to the New University of Maryland Criminology and Criminal Justice Newsletter!

Hi Friends, Colleagues and Graduates of the University of Maryland's Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice!

It has been a very exciting year in CCJS. We welcomed three new faculty members to the Department. Maria Velez and Greg Midgette have just finished their second semester and Bianca Bersani will be joining us in the fall. We are planning to hire four more faculty during the coming year. We also celebrated the election of Sally Simpson as President of the American Society of Criminology, Laura Dugan as the Vice President and Brian Johnson as a member of the Executive Board—where they will join Maria Velez—who is already an Executive Board member. We also cheered upon hearing that Peter Reuter had received the Stockholm Prize in Criminology and Sally Simpson was named a Sutherland Fellow. We are very pleased to welcome a new cohort of 14 graduate students to our PhD program. In the attached newsletter we go through just a few of the highlights of CCJS over the past semester.

For a great opportunity to network with your colleagues from UMD's CCJS Department, join us at the National Law Enforcement Museum (444 E St NW, Washington, DC) on June 5, 6:30-8:30 pm. We will have a short talk on the opioid crisis by Peter Reuter and guests will be able to tour the museum. Snacks and drinks will be provided.

Please continue to share your stories with us at ccjs-admin@umd.edu! Tell us about your achievements and successes and we will try and feature some of these in upcoming newsletters. We hope you will enjoy hearing the latest about Criminology and Criminal Justice at Maryland! And please plan to come back and visit sometime.
