Welcome to the University of Maryland College of Behavioral and Social Sciences, Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice!

The Department is planning to host a few special events in Spring 2019. Please be sure to visit our website (https://www.ccjs.umd.edu) for updates.

For more, please visit our website (https://www.ccjs.umd.edu). Tell us about your achievements and successes and we would love to share those with our wider audience.

Events and Stay Connected

In Media

- Professor Laura Dugan was quoted in an Associated Press article focusing on the unusual nature of the Aberdeen, MD shooting.
- Professor Laura Dugan was quoted in a USA Today article regarding what is next for the Muller Probe.
- James Trusty, Lecturer and Former DOJ Prosecutor, spoke with Fox News.
- Michelle Fabiani, a research associate, is completing the final stages of her doctoral dissertation and is looking forward to her future work as a Data Science Researcher.

Student News

- Sarah Tahamont to Lead First Comprehensive Study of Postsecondary Education in Prison.
- The $900K Laura and Arnold Foundation grant will help evaluate Pennsylvania sites of the Second Chance Pell Pilot Program.
- The Department is launching two new master’s degree programs in China and Vietnam. Starting next academic year we will be initiating a Graduate Certificate in Criminal Justice.
- Much has changed since our Department was established in 1969. The Department has grown to be one of the most popular majors on campus and our undergraduate program is considered to be one of the best in the nation. Leadership in Public Safety Administration. And criminology continues to evolve. Adding to our long-standing interests in topics like homicides and cybercrime, hate crime and transnational organized crime. We would like to share CCJS news with our many alumni and friends around the country and the world. To move in this direction, we have decided to launch a newsletter twice a year around the world.

Please be sure to visit our website (https://www.ccjs.umd.edu) for updates.

Get involved in reading books related to how the social sciences and policy shape our world.

Continue your education and personal growth by joining fellow BSOS alumni in reading books related to how the social sciences and policy shape our world.

The Department is hosting a few special events in Spring 2019. Please be sure to visit our website (https://www.ccjs.umd.edu) for updates.

Michelle Fabiani

Michelle Fabiani is completing the final stages of her doctoral dissertation and is looking forward to her future work as a Data Science Researcher.