

The University of Texas at El Paso
College of Liberal Arts
Department of Criminal Justice
Assistant Professor of Criminal Justice

Position Description: The Department of Criminal Justice is seeking to fill one full-time tenure-track position beginning Fall 2021 at the Assistant Professor level. Responsibilities include conducting and publishing scholarly research, seeking extramural funding, teaching face-to-face and online courses, and service to the department, university, and profession.

About UTEP: The University of Texas at El Paso is a Carnegie R1 and Community Engaged research university in the heart of the U.S.-Mexico border region, in a bicultural metroplex of over 800,000 people. UTEP faculty are nationally recognized for their commitment to student success, teaching, and research. UTEP enrolls more than 25,000 students, of whom nearly 80 percent are Latino/Latina. UTEP provides equal access and social mobility for over 50% of its student body of first generation students. UTEP comprises 10 academic colleges/schools. The Department of CJ offers a B.A. in Criminal Justice, an equivalent 100% online B.A., and an M.S. in Criminology and Criminal Justice. The CJ Department has developed agency relationships to provide CJ faculty with access to agency-based research opportunities. The department also has faculty who teach in Intelligence/Security Studies (B.A., M.S.) and Master of Defense and Strategic Studies.

Required Qualifications: Applicants must have a Ph.D. in Criminal Justice, Criminology or closely related field from an accredited university. ABD applicants will be considered if doctorate will be completed by Fall 2021. Active research agenda and published scholarly journal articles are required. Applicants with only a J.D., Psy.D., or Ed.D. will not be considered.

Preferred Areas: All research/teaching areas of criminal justice and criminology will be considered, but preference will be given to candidates who have demonstrated teaching and/or research areas in at least one of these areas: policing, cybercrime, or white-collar crime.
