

CRIMINAL JUSTICE, Assistant Professor or Instructor, Tenure-Track

Start date: September 1, 2017

Seeking candidates with expertise in laws and courts (tenure-track assistant professor OR tenure-track instructor) or forensic psychology (tenure-track assistant professor).

For the laws/courts position: Ph.D. in criminal justice (preferred) and/or J.D. Advanced ABDs will be considered.

For the forensic psychology position: Ph.D. in criminal justice or psychology. Advanced ABDs will be considered.

Candidates will be expected to teach in the B.A. and M.A. programs and must be able to teach core classes. All faculty are expected to teach general studies courses. Teaching load is three courses (12 credit hours) per semester. Additional duties, including student advisement, are required as negotiated under collective bargaining agreement. Excellent teaching and service are expected. In addition, strong scholarship is expected for Assistant Professors. Rather than scholarship, Instructors are expected to advise 1.5-1.75 times the average numbers of advisees of program faculty, and engage in additional service obligations to be negotiated upon hire.

Salary is dependent on experience. Screening will begin February 15 and continue until position is filled. To apply please visit: <https://stockton.hiretouch.com/>. Only electronic documents will be accepted. Please complete the on-line application in addition to providing the following required documents. All documents must be submitted in order for your application to move forward. You may upload documents using Word or PDF. Please submit:

- 1) Letter of application describing qualifications and accomplishments
- 2) Curriculum vitae
- 3) Evidence of teaching excellence
