Jane (Jae Eun) Lee

7730 Harkins Rd. | Lanham, MD 20706
+1 (310) 307-9141 | jelee18@umd.edu

EDUCATION.

2022 – Expected 2024	University of Maryland, College Park, College Park, MD Traditional M.A. in Criminology and Criminal Justice GPA: 3.837
2018 – 2021	University of California, Los Angeles, Los Angeles, CA B.A. in Psychology, B.A. in Sociology GPA: 3.956

INTERESTS.

Developmental criminology and changes in offending trajectories across the life course; juvenile justice and pathways to and from system involvement; discretionary sentencing practices, esp. juvenile transfer; minority offending and victimization patterns; psychopathology and antisocial behavior.

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENTS AND AWARDS.

2021	Summa Cum Laude University of California, Los Angeles
2018 – 2021	Dean's Honors List University of California, Los Angeles

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCES.

08/2023 – Present	Graduate Teaching Assistant, University of Maryland, College Park Works as a full-time teaching assistant for CCJS 200 (Introduction to Statistics in Criminology and Criminal Justice), Fall 2023 & Spring 2024. Supervisors: Sarah Tahamont, PhD; Robert Brame, PhD
08/2023 – 11/2023	Program Intern, International Association of Chiefs of Police Worked as an intern for CRI-TAC (Collaborative Reform Initiative Technical Assistance Center), a DOJ and COPS-funded program under the Programs division of IACP. Participated in meetings with federal and state agencies, police chiefs, and subject matter experts (SMEs) to help design and deliver personalized technical assistance and training. Supervisors: Brittney Stoerzinger; David Snively

06/2023 – 08/2023 Summer Associate, D.C. Office of the Attorney General
Worked at the Criminal Section of the Public Safety Division and handled tasks relevant to assigned cases, including examining discovery and police reports, participating in papering decisions and investigations, and writing memos and proffers. Led and completed a research project on juvenile transfers using primary data sources. Also attended superior court daily.
Supervisor: Brian Kim, Assistant Attorney General

01/2023 – 06/2023 Graduate Teaching Assistant, University of Maryland, College Park
Worked as a half-time teaching assistant for CCJS 105 (Introduction to Criminology), Spring 2023.
Supervisor: Brett Lacey, PhD

09/2022 – 12/2022 Criminal Justice Department Intern, Niskanen Center
Handled a variety of research and policy relevant tasks, including literature review, synopses writing, data collection, and data management. Participated in weekly meetings and discussions regarding ongoing projects and criminal justice policymaking.
Supervisor: Greg Newburn, Director of Criminal Justice

08/2020 – 11/2020 Campaign and Project Management Intern, Flip the West
Worked as a committee member of the leadership team at Flip the West, a political grassroots organization. Duties included directly engaging with potential voters for the 2020 Senate election through phone banking, planning volunteer opportunities, teaching technical processes to volunteers, and attending weekly meetings and workshops. Practiced social media reach out and cultivated professional development skills.

RESEARCH EXPERIENCES.

11/2020 – 08/2021 Research Assistant, UCLA ADHD and Development Lab
Responsibilities: Mainly conducted work for a Hostile Attribution Bias project focused on pre-adolescent girls. Tasks included transcribing, coding, and interpreting interviews, participating in weekly meetings, and analyzing research regarding HAB, conduct disorders, reactive aggression, and externalizing behaviors. Also contributed to Dr. Steve Lee's DREAMING study by participating in lab meetings and discussing design.
Supervisors: Steve Lee, PhD & Kelsey Stiles, B.A.

01/2020 – 06/2021 Research Assistant, UCLA Social Vision/Communication Lab
Responsibilities: Prior to COVID-19, conducted participant interviews, led SONA studies using Qualtrics, and briefly learned about eye tracking and looking time methodology. Other tasks included analyzing research on Social Vision, using Morpheus to manipulate visual face stimuli, organizing pre-collected data for analysis, and attending biweekly lab meetings. Also learned basic R for data input and analysis.
Supervisors: Kerri L. Johnson, PhD & Grace Gillespie, B.A.

12/2020	Research Assistant, National Forensic Service (NFS), South Korea Responsibilities: Temporarily worked in the criminological psychology unit of the NFS on a study investigating the trustworthiness and accuracy of witness testimonies. Tasks included coding participant interviews, attending meetings, and inputting interview and EEG data using Excel.
06/2017 – 09/2017	Research Assistant, Bronx Community College, New York Responsibilities: Participated as a high school student. Tasks included helping to create pretests with questions focused on assessing quantitative reasoning and improving quantitative literacy, organizing stimuli for later experiments, and observing and contributing during interviews of English Language Learners at the Urban Community College (UCC). Supervisor: Minkyung Choi, PhD

RESEARCH PROJECTS IN PROGRESS.

I.   Lee, Jae Eun & Lehmann, Peter. Juvenile Transfer Status and Punishment Under the Minnesota Sentencing Guidelines.

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS.

I.   Lee, J. Supervision Outcomes in Juvenile Court: Does Neighborhood Disorder Matter? Poster Presented at the European Society of Criminology, 23rd Annual Conference, Italy, In Person Presentation (Session: "Poster Session"). September 2023.

II.   Lee, J. Supervision Outcomes in Juvenile Court: Does Neighborhood Disorder Matter? Poster Presented at the American Society of Criminology, Annual Meetings, Philadelphia, In Person Presentation (Session: "Poster Session II"). November 2023.

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING.

2023 – 2027	Collaborative Institute Training Initiative (CITI) – Social and Behavioral Responsible Conduct of Research
2023 – 2027	Collaborative Institute Training Initiative (CITI) – Conflict of Interest
2022 – 2024	Mental Health First Aid Certification (MFHA)
2020 – 2021	Collaborative Institute Training Initiative (CITI) – Human Research, Social and Behavioral Research Best Practices for Clinical Research

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS.

2024 – Present   Student Member, American Society of Criminology
                        Divisions: Developmental/Life-Course Criminology, Corrections and Sentencing, International Criminology

2023 – Present   Student Member, Korean Society of Criminology in America (KOSCA)

SKILLS AND PROFICIENCY.

I.   Advanced in Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, SharePoint)
II.   Proficient in Stata
III.   Proficient in R Studio
IV.   Familiar with Qualtrics for research purposes
V.   Familiar with Conversation Analysis (CA)
VI.   Fluent in English and Korean