Fall 2019

Office Hours: Wednesdays 11 am to 12:30 pm; Fridays 2 to 3 pm; and by appointment

COURSE OBJECTIVES

The primary goal of this course is for students to understand and apply criminological theories (i.e., explanations) to the distribution of crime at the individual and macro levels. To do so, we will pay particular attention to each theory's assumptions about human nature, the social order of society, locus of criminality and criminal motivation. Given that criminology has longstanding sociological underpinnings, we will spend a significant amount of time learning about theories of crime that highlight the roles of social structure, the environment, and inter-personal relationships. An additional goal is for students to understand the nature and extent of crime. In this course, we will discuss a wide array of criminological theories as well as address a variety of topics pertinent to the study of crime such as the divergent definitions of crime, the various correlates of crime, and crime trends. This course provides opportunities for students to discuss and write about crime-related issues. To that end, about every other Friday we allocate class time ("discussion days") so that we can work in groups and/or individually on specific issues related to readings, class material and the writing assignment.

STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Students successfully completing this course will be able to: (1) connect criminological theory to the problem of crime, (2) specify the strategies that professional criminologists employ to study crime, (3) specify the correlates of offending and crime, (4) understand strengths and weaknesses of major sources of crime data, (5) communicate (written and verbal) about crime and the theories that seek to explain crime, and (6) succeed in advanced criminology courses.

REQUIRED TEXTS

1. Bernard, Thomas J., Jeffrey B. Snipes, and Alexander L. Gerould. 2016. Vold's Theoretical Criminology. New York: Oxford University Press. Seventh edition. Be able to answer discussion questions at the end of each assigned chapter.
2. Miller, Jody. 2001. One of the Guys: Girls, Gangs, and Gender. New York: Oxford University Press. Be sure to answer questions provided by Dr. Vélez for this book.
3. 20 readings from ELMS course website. These readings are on ELMS and noted by a R# along with author information in the course outline below. You should be able to answer questions from the document titled "questions for Readings" for all of these readings. Document found at the bottom of "readings" tab in ELMS. THESE READINGS ARE REQUIRED.

- Students should download the readings as soon as possible. Waiting until the day before the test to download articles is strongly discouraged
- Students are encouraged to put all of the readings in a three-ring binder

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Writing Assignment.

Connecting Theory to the Real World Issue of Crime. A primary goal of this course is to facilitate students' evaluation and application of theories to the "real world" of crime. In this assignment, students are required to write up theoretically guided explanations to explain some research based findings regarding crime that are provided to you. Further information about this project will be provided in a detailed handout on Friday, September 20th. This assignment is due at the beginning of class on Friday, December 6th.

NOTE: It is your responsibility to make sure that you complete and turn in the assignment. Assignments that are not turned in to me at the beginning of class on their due date will be considered one day late. Late assignments will be penalized 5 percentage points for each 24 hour period that they are late.

2. Exams

There will be four exams. Tests will cover material from lectures, class discussions, videos, and readings.

The final exam (exam 4) is cumulative. You are responsible for all assigned readings, even if they are not discussed in class; exams will not be curved.

Make-up policy. See point #3 under classroom business.

Exams are not returned to students; students who wish to review their exam should arrange to meet Dr. Vélez in her office during office hours.

COURSE GRADE

Grades will be determined as follows:

Grades are based on the following scale:

Exam 1	10 %	Grade	% of total points	Grade	% of total points

Total	100%	B-	82-80	F	Below 60
		C+	79-77

If earning a particular grade is important to you, please speak with me at the beginning of the semester so that I can offer some helpful suggestions for achieving your goal.

CLASSROOM BUSINESS

1. ATTENDANCE.

Regular attendance to class is highly encouraged by Dr. Vélez as it is a key way to do well in the course. During class, I go over slides that provide key ideas, themes, and research that connect with your weekly readings. These slides are not available on ELMS. It is very hard to pass this class without regular attendance.

2. UMD COURSE RELATED POLICIES WEBSITE

It is our shared responsibility to know and abide by the University of Maryland's policies that relate to all courses, which include topics like:

- Academic integrity
- Student and instructor conduct
- Accessibility and accommodations
- Attendance and excused absences
- Grades and appeals
- Copyright and intellectual property

Please visit <http://www.ugst.umd.edu/courserelatedpolicies.html> for the Office of Undergraduate Studies' full list of campus-wide policies and follow up with me if you have questions.

3. MAKEUP EXAM POLICY/EXCUSED ABSENCES

All students can miss one exam. No documentation is necessary. The make-up exam cannot be scheduled any earlier than two weeks after the date the exam was missed. I have a very strict policy regarding any additional requests for a makeup exam. These will only be given in cases of excused absences and official documentation is required. Exams are considered to be Major Scheduled Graded Events and therefore the University medical excuse policy which allows one student signed honor statement attesting to illness does not apply to them. Excused absences are: illness with a doctor's note, death in the immediate family, required school activities, and required court appearance. I will not accept a Health Center honor statement to verify an illness. If you go to the Health Center and a doctor will not write you a note, you will need to get a copy of your medical record from them to verify your illness. By law, you are entitled to get a copy of this and it is your responsibility to do so. I must be notified by email, in person, or by phone PRIOR to missing a second exam for me to consider giving you a makeup. If you have a problem on the day of an exam, call or email me and inform me of the nature of the situation. The second make-up exam cannot be scheduled any earlier than two weeks after the date the exam was missed; the same is true for the third or fourth exam.

4. ELMS

I will be using ELMS to post the syllabus, readings, grades, and some handouts. Go to <http://elms.umd.edu> and log in with your Directory ID (logon ID) and password to use this feature. Grades listed on ELMS are raw scores (percentages) and have not been weighted to calculate your final grade. Graduating seniors are graded on the same scale as all other students.

5. USE OF TECHNOLOGY

In this class, students will be allowed to use their personal computers to take class notes. If a student is found to be using personal technology devices in any way that is not related to taking class notes, the student will lose the privilege of using any personal technology device for the duration of the semester. I strongly encourage you to take notes by hand. Research is mounting on the benefits of taking notes by hand than typing them on a computer for effective learning. All cell phones need to be silenced when class begins. NO EXCEPTIONS! If I find you texting, you will get a verbal warning first and then a second warning will be delivered by email. If I have to warn you three times, I will drop you from the class.
