COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course provides an overview of the three major components of the United States criminal justice system: police, courts, and corrections. Each component will be explored in its development over time as well as various issues surrounding each component. This course will also cover important issues that are relevant to current debates including reentry, technology and crime, juvenile justice, and future directions for criminal justice.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK

COURSE WEBSITE
This class utilizes ELMS (Canvas) for distribution of important course information. To access ELMS, go to http://elms.umd.edu and log in with your Directory ID and password. If you have any problems accessing your account, contact the support desk at 301-405-1500. You must be registered for the class to access the course website. The syllabus, extra reading material, class announcements, assignments, and grades will be posted on ELMS. You are strongly encouraged to access ELMS on a regular basis as you are responsible for knowing the material posted on the website. Please also monitor and use the UMD email account associated with ELMS to communicate with me.
COURSE GRADING
Exam #1: 20%
Exam #2: 25%
Exam #3: 30%
Discussion: 25%

Percentage points will be converted to a letter grade as listed below:

A+ (97-100%)  B+ (87-89%)  C+ (77-79%)  D+ (67-69%)  F (<60%)
A   (93-96%)    B   (83-86%)    C   (73-76%)    D   (63-66%)
A- (90-92%)    B- (80-82%)    C- (70-72%)    D- (60-62%)

EXAMS
Grades will be based on three exams and discussion participation. Exams will be multiple-choice and will feature content from the assigned readings, weekly lectures, videos, and guest speakers. Exams will be completed without the use of notes, texts, computers, or additional aides. Exams will be non-cumulative and will not be curved in the course.

*Please note that if you arrive for an exam after the first person has completed and exited the lecture hall, you may not sit for the exam.

DISCUSSION
A weekly discussion will be held by one of the teaching assistants (TA) in the course. Attending and participating in discussion is required and critical to your success in the course. Course material will be reviewed each week and you will be evaluated for participation through a variety of discussion assignments. Your TA will provide you with a course schedule and outline of your discussion assignments. All policies outlined in this syllabus apply to both lecture and discussion sections, unless otherwise indicated. Please make sure you attend your registered discussion section or no credit will be granted for your participation. Discussion will not be held during the first week of class so please attend discussion starting in the second week of class.

GRADE DISPUTES
If you have questions or concerns about your exam grade(s) and believe I should review them, you must submit a written request over email that describes your concern in detail. If you have questions or concerns about your discussion assignment grade(s), please submit a written request over email to your TA that describes your concern in detail. This request must be submitted within one week after grades for the relevant assignment have been posted.
COURSE RELATED POLICIES
The University of Maryland expects each student to take full responsibility for their academic work and academic progress. As a student, you have the responsibility to be familiar with and uphold the Code of Academic Integrity and the Code of Conduct, as well as for notifying your course instructors in a timely fashion regarding academic accommodations related to absences and accessibility. University policies outlined in the link below are particularly relevant to your experience in academic courses. Additionally, please review the policies specific to this course: http://www.ugst.umd.edu/courserelatedpolicies.html

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY
The University of Maryland has a nationally recognized Code of Academic Integrity which sets standards for academic integrity for all undergraduate and graduate students. As a student you are responsible for upholding these standards in your courses. It is very important for you to be aware of the consequences of cheating, fabrication, facilitation, and plagiarism. In this course, academic dishonesty of any form will not be tolerated.

CLASSROOM CODE OF CONDUCT
As a department and university, we expect the faculty and students to be prepared for class, to be actively engaged in classroom activities, and to adhere to the Code of Student Conduct. Students are expected to treat others with respect, as well as refrain from disruptive behaviors such as leaving the classroom repeatedly, making loud and distracting noises, eating, reading outside material, sleeping, side conversations, text messaging and using prohibited technological devices. Also, please note that cell phones are to be turned off or placed on silent during class. Repeated classroom disruptions will result in being asked to leave the class and may ultimately affect the grade you receive. Repeated tardiness to class lectures will also be considered disruptive and may influence your final grade. Students who do not adhere to these policies will be subject to referral to the Office of Student Conduct or to Campus Police.

DISABILITY SUPPORT
Students who are registered with the Disability Support Service (DSS)/Accessibility and Disability Service (ADS) Office and who provide me with required DSS/ADS documentation will be accommodated in the classroom. After receiving an Accommodations Letter from DSS/ADS, you are expected to meet with each course instructor, in person, to provide them with a copy of the Accommodations Letter and to obtain their signature on the Acknowledgement of Student Request form. The Accommodations Letter must be presented to me no later than February 13, 2017. DSS/ADS students who are requesting to take their exams at the DSS/ADS Testing Office need to provide me with a testing form online at least three business days prior to each exam. Saturday and Sunday are not business days. The student is expected to take the exam at the same time as the rest of the class.
RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCES & ATHLETES
If you are unable to attend class or take an exam due to a religious observance or athletic obligation, you will need to discuss this with me and submit the necessary documentation to excuse your absence by February 13, 2017. Failure to notify me by this date will result in the grade of a zero for the missed exam/assignment.

MAKEUP POLICY
Makeup exams and assignments will only be given in cases of excused absences. Excused absences include: religious observances, mandatory military obligation, illness of the student or illness of an immediate family member, required participation in university activities, death in the immediate family, and required court appearances.

The student must notify the instructor and/or TA prior to missing an exam or assignment in order for a makeup to be scheduled. If you know in advance that you will absent for an exam or assignment due date with an approved absence, you will be expected to take the exam or turn in the assignment prior to the exam/assignment due date. Failure to adhere to these policies will result in a grade of zero for the exam/assignment. All makeup exams and assignments must be completed within one week of the missed exam/assignment.

Official documentation is always required. Students may, one time per course per semester, provide a self-signed excuse as documentation of an absence from a single class that does not coincide with a major assessment or assignment due date. For all other medically necessitated absences, students must provide documentation from a physician or the University Health Center, upon request of the course instructor or TA.

Discussion assignments that are submitted late without a documented excused absence will lose one full letter grade per day. Students have up to five days to submit a late assignment with a maximum penalty of 50%. If you miss a lecture, it is your responsibility to obtain lecture notes from a classmate as lecture notes will not be posted or shared regardless of circumstances. In order to succeed in this course, you will need to attend classes regularly to ensure you obtain and understand the course material covered each week. In this course, no extra credit will be offered.

USE OF TECHNOLOGY
All technological devices are prohibited in this class including: laptops, MP3 devices, smartphones, phones, calculators, gaming devices, etc. If these devices are seen and/or used during the class, you will be asked to leave class immediately. The only exception to the use of technology policy is if a student has required documented accommodations through DSS and has provided me with this information by February 13, 2017.

COPYRIGHT AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY
Class lectures and other course materials are copyrighted and may not be reproduced for anything other than your personal use in this course without the permission of the course instructor. Course materials are the property of the course instructor – do not sell them, do not post them on a website. Be aware that copyright infringements may be referred to the Office of Student Conduct.
